

CHOOSE A LIFE OF FREEDOM

As you are reading my Eye on Arbonne story, know, right now, that you have what it takes to change your life and the lives of those around you. I watched six children in my home full time while building this business. I was able to quit that job in one year. If you can make a decision, believe in it and tell a story, then you can reach your dreams.

If you are trying to decide if Arbonne is the answer to the many things that keep you awake at night then I hope my story gives you the encouragement to quit trying to decide and go ahead and say "yes!" If you use health and wellness items, shampoo, skin care, lotion, vitamins, sunscreen or cosmetics, then you qualify as a good candidate to take on the Arbonne opportunity and succeed. If you like helping other people gain a life of potential financial and time freedom, then Arbonne is the right fit for you as well. This opportunity that you decide to take on as the potential answer to your every financial concern really has nothing to do with you at all. It has been said that if you help enough people get what they want, then you in turn will get what you want. Do you know people in your life who could use your help to attain a life of choices? What a gift you can offer them.

The decision to choose Arbonne as the vehicle to your dreams is only about you the moment you decide to use it as the vehicle to your dreams. After that decision, Arbonne becomes the vehicle to take everyone you know on an excursion to reach their dreams. Imagine driving this awesome Mercedes-Benz and on the outside of the car are the words, "Arbonne dream machine." We simply look for people who need to be picked up and given direction to reach their dreams. This is the "tell the story" part of our motto. We set out to find those people who have a dream, but just cannot seem to get into the right vehicle to reach them. What a day it will be for both of you when you teach someone you love and care about how they can attain everything on their wishlist. Easy? No. Simple? Yes. Rewarding? Yes.

“Decide, believe and tell your story.”

After deciding this was the vehicle, then I had to start believing. I never looked back. I took every hurdle and bump in the road with a no-matter-what attitude. I did have hurdles to overcome and my belief in my sponsors, Arbonne and eventually myself are what helped me overcome them all. Believe in the person who is trying to take you to your dream destination — the path has already been paved. Your belief will grow as you gain success so you can then be the one leading others to their dreams. The bottom line is, if you want it, you can have it as well, just decide, believe and tell the story.

To my Regional Vice President, Melinda Claudepierre: Thank you for telling me the story. I am grateful that you were brave enough to do it. To RVP Debbie Thompson: Thank you for being an example of someone who believed without a doubt that I could get there.

To my special team: AM Christie Burn, you are an awesome friend. This journey together has added so much value to my life. I treasure you. You are next! To Erin Sebring: You are a great friend and you will be at the top before you know it. To AM Melissa Harris: You have been a leader from the beginning. I have truly enjoyed your friendship. To AM Tina Cook: I would not have known you if it was not for Arbonne. You are a great friend and you make me laugh! To my AMs-in-qualification, Susan Kay, Robin Bird and Terri Wallace and DM Lisa Blanton: You all are great leaders and are doing well at showing your team how to reach the top!

To my DMs, Candyce Nierzaba, Mark Conforti, Hannah Gantt, Beth Adams, Glenda Hatfield, Terri Barron, Art and Barbara Taylor, Susan Fromknecht, Gail Lister, Nancy Turner and Anna Grage: All of you are awesome people and wonderful friends, and without Arbonne I would not have known you.

To my direct Consultants who are NVPs in training, Jenny Ohly, Michelle Brannon, Michele Cooley, Barbara Weaver and Stina Thoennes: Thank you for allowing me to be a part of your life, hang on, the ride is going to blow you away.

To my Whys: My husband, Mark, thank you for being so supportive with your love, your time and giving me the freedom to go out and make a difference. I love you! To my oldest son, Tyler: Thank you for the babysitting on a moments notice, and for your patience, so we can help give you a life like we have always wanted to. You are very special and I love you. To my Taylor and Teagan: DisneyWorld®, here we come! You are both precious and I love you dearly.

To my parents, Rick and Joy Thoennes: I could not have designed a better blueprint and handed it to God for more perfect parents than the two of you. Your support through the first part of the journey has been tremendous. You have been examples of what I hope to be as parents and grandparents. I love you both more than you could even imagine, I owe a large part of this success to you. Thank you!

I give thanks to God for everything and giving me the eyes to see the difference. All good things come from above and let me tell you, this is good. Do not stop believing — follow the path and you will be there too!
